

Counseling Ministries
Agreement Form

This is a church based ministry providing pastoral and Christian counseling. We offer pastoral counseling to individuals seeking to integrate their faith into the process of resolving personal or family issues. Our counseling is done by "pastoral counselors" not licensed by the state.

In secular psychology there are approximately 200 different philosophies, but our approach is from a Christian perspective. We base our counseling on the Bible and encourage biblical solutions. Christian resources such as books, tapes, videotapes, etc. may be suggested upon request.

The counselor is a consultant or resource person only, whose intervention may be freely accepted or rejected by the client at any time. Therefore, decisions made during and after counseling are the responsibility of the client.

We do request that each client consider giving a love offering. To give a love offering to the pastor, checks should be made out to him. To give a love offering to help support this ministry, checks should be made out to "Covenant Bible Church, Inc." designated for "Counseling Ministries". Offerings given to the Counseling Ministry Fund will also be used for educational assistance as Pastor Franklin pursues his doctorate in Ministry and Pastoral Counseling.

Covenant Bible Church Counseling Ministries may have an approved prayer partner present during the counseling sessions. Prayer partners attend counseling sessions for prayer support and counselor training.

Statement Of Understanding

"I affirm that I have read the above information and agree to follow this standard. I release from liability the counselors or agents of Covenant Bible Church from any choices I make as a result of counseling services or ministerial guidance that I receive."
